MRS. WILSON'S DEATH

Crushes President and Throws Mantle of Mourning Over the Entire Nation

Gentle Mistress of the White House
Passed to Her Last Sleep
Yesterday Afternoon

"Doctor, I'm going away; take care of Woodrow," final words of dying wife.

Washington, August 6.—Mrs. Ellen Louise Axson Wilson, wife of President
Woodrow Wilson, is dead.

Death occurred at 5 p. m. at the White House, where she had been ill for more than two months.

For several weeks her condition had been considered critical, and she fell away to only a shadow of her former self.

A fall several months ago and a surgical operation on her spine as a result, are said to have been the beginning of her turn for the worse.

It is said that chronic kidney trouble developed after the fall and also neu-vous prostration.

President at Bedside

President Wilson had been constantly at her bedside. He even wrote his neutrality proclamation and his offer of mediation to the Powers in connection with the European war while seated by his wife.

For nights he rested on a couch not far from her room, and at times did not remove his clothing for entire nights,
for fear he would be called to her bedside.

The President was constantly numbered by the shock and his grief was heartrending. He bore up well, however, under the strain and devoted himself to his daughters.

Was Minister's Daughter.

Mrs. Wilson, before her marriage to Woodrow Wilson, was Miss Ellen Louise Axson, daughter of Rev. Samuel Edward and Margaret Jane Hoyt Axson.

She was born at Savannah, Ga. Her father was a Presbyterian minister.
She was married to Woodrow Wilson at Savannah, June 24, 1885.

RALPH D. TOMPKINS.

Mr. Ralph D. Tompkins, age 20, of Newberg, N. Y., the one-leg globe traveller, arrived in Maysville this morning. While somewhat worn and weary he seemed in good condition. He left his home last November, and is this far on his tour of the United States.
He is stopping at the White Hall Hotel.
In other cities he has given exhibitions of what a man with one leg can do.

DEATH OF ELDER MILTON PYLES

(Times-Democrat.)

Elder Milton Pyles, in his 89th year, died Saturday at the home of his son at Oakwood, this county. Funeral Monday by Elder Tinsley and interment in Elizaville cemetery. The deceased is survived by six children to whom we tender sympathy. His death was due to the infirmities of age and up to a short time before his death he retained his physical and mental powers in a remarkable degree.

Mr. James A. Wallace has accepted

LATEST WAR BULLETINS

The British Lion Enraged.

London, England, August 6.—The passage of a war budget for $500,000,000 in the Commons today without opposition and the granting of an army increase of 500,000 men in accordance with the plans of Lord Kitchener, the Minister of War, shows that Great Britain is in deadly earnest.

Deaf To Wilson's Mediation Plans.

Washington, August 6.—No responses have been received tonight to the formal tender of good offices by the United States to the warring powers.

Rapid Progress in Relief.

Rapid progress was made today to ward the relief of Americans in Europe.

German Defeat is Confirmed

ment from Berlin telling of the repulse of German forces.

Emperor William, of Germany, in an order to the army and navy, called upon all Germans capable of bearing arms

8,000 Germans Fell in Battle.

Brussels, August 6.—A night attack on the Belgian positions was awaited with great assurance by the Belgian troops, who had been strongly reintered. Further German troops were supposed to be on the way to reinforce the regiments which suffered severely in yesterday's attack.

Brussels, via London, August 9.

The Gazette places the loss of the Germans in the repulse at Liege at 8,000 and states that the Belgians suffered far less. The alleged route of the German Seventh corps, the Gazette says, is not confirmed in its entirety.

Expect Battle in Mediterranean.

Paris, August 6.—It is reported here that the French fleet in the Mediterranean is preparing to give battle to the Austrian-German squadron, which is reported to have been ordered to effect a junction for offensive operations against the French.

To Shoot German Officers.

Brussels, August 6.—Two disguised German officers arrested today at Ostend had in their possession extensive military notes and plans of great value.
They are to be shot.

Many German residents were arrested
today and charged with espionage.
Every German discovered anywhere in the city is brought before the police who have considerable trouble in protecting the prisoners from attack by the excited crowds. The patriotic enthusiasm here is extraordinary. Nearly all the citizens wear badges with the colors of Belgium, France and England combined.

Thousands of women of all classes have been enrolled as Red Cross nurses and are awaiting the arrival of the wounded from the battlefields around Liege. King Albert has handed over his palace to the Red Cross society and the queen will act as a nurse.

Many hotels also have been transformed into Red Cross stations and the citizens of Brussels have given up their carriages and motor cars for the transportation of the wounded.

Destroyed Zeppelin Airship.

London, August 6.—The Daily Mail's correspondent at Brussels reports that a German aeroplane, flying at a height of 1,500 feet, was brought down by a shot, which wounded the pilot. A Zeppelin airship, manned by Germans, was struck by the fire from a Belgian fort and fell near Herbe.

Hundreds of automobiles left Brussels
during the night to pick up the wounded. The first prisoner of war brought in was a German captain named Forstner, who was wounded.

MARRIAGES

Surely the month of June has changed places with August.
Yesterday, the County Clerk's office
was the scene of a double wedding.
County Judge W. H. Rice performed the ceremony.

The contracting parties were Mr. Jos.
Gilvin, age 14, and Miss Rosa Blanton, age 48, both from Flemingsburg. The other party was from Hamilton, Ohio.
They were Mr. William Berry, aged 30, and Miss Mattie Anderson, aged 20.

A third license was granted to a couple of children yesterday on the consent of the parents. They were from Robertson county and their names were Mr. Earl Adkinson, age 17, and Miss Riddie Wells, aged 16.

ed a cablegram from Venice stating

There had been nine cablegrams sent this city.

Miss Hilda Threlkeld is also with Miss Armstrong and it is good news to learn that they are safe.

Mr. W. H. Robb, of Helena, is in receipt of a cablegram from his daughter Miss Florence Robb saying that she is with the Eagle Tourist party and that they are all safe in London.

RAN THE SEA GAUNTLET.

in four days and ten hours her fastest and most dramatic voyage, the manmoth Cunard liner, Mauretania, from Liverpool to New York, arrived at Hal-whom were Americans fleeing from war-

THE MADNESS OF A MAD EMPEROR.

Is Emperor William of Germany crazy? No human being but a madman would take the initiative and plunge the East into a war that will pamper 300,000,000 people. Talk about Nero fiddling while Rome burned, that was a small blaze compared with the Kaiser's horrible act to demonstrate his own importance and a pig-headed opinion that he reigns with God.

However, it is pleasing to note that God, History and Fate, always mete out to insane tyrant-rulers the Eternal Justice that is as certain as it is inexorable. Destiny will deal with the present Emperor of Germany and his score of palaces may be but smoldering ruins when the year ends.

MAKING MEN OF CONVICTS.

Work of the State Board of Control received a high compliment at the hands of Dr. George A. Zellers, a noted alienist, at the meeting of Alienists and Neurologists under the auspices of the Chicago Medical Society, when he introduced Dr. H. P. Sights, Superintendent of the Western Hospital, by saying: "The Kentucky State Board of Control made the best report in point of progress and innovations of any State institutions in the United States. They have abolished restraints absolutely, and they maintain a system of kind and humane treatment, hydrotherapy and entertainment as a diversion and means for restoring and managing patients that have proven extraordinary successful."—State Journal.

WHAT DIMES WILL DO.

Land is cheap. For easy figuring let us say it is worth $160 an acre. A square rod, then, is worth only $1, and ten cents' worth will be a little more than twenty-seven square feet, or a little farm slightly more than five feet on a side. How often a boy will waste a dime and think nothing of it. For a dime he can buy land enough to hold a flower bed, four hills of clover or a peach tree! The boy who can save a dime can become rich. Make a dime look like a tiny farm. The boy who learns to save a dime and to know values will some day come into his own.—Breder's Gazette.

HIGHEST PRICE FOR CATTLE.

W. S. Beasley, of Fayette county, sold to Monte Fox, of Danville, agent for Armour & Co., 180 fine export cattle, averaging 1,510 pounds. A record price of $132.12 1/2 per head, or a total of $23,782.50 was received for the lot. Mr. Beasley has been in the cattle business for many years, but states that this is the highest price he has ever received.

HOW THE "PROGRESSIVES"

ARE PETERING OUT.

In the Democratic primary for Congress Haley received 13 votes, Young 22, Hancey 11, and Perry 2. But seven Progressive votes were cast in the county, two at Concord, one at Valley, two in Vanceburg No. 2, one at Petersburg and one at Tollesboro. Vance received 5 and Jolly 2.—Vanceburg Sun.

"LESE MAJESTE" WILL GET ITS JUST DUES.

The fight today is the feudal-military aristocratic element of Austria and Germany striving to show itself indispensable. There is no other reason for a fight than this. The nations are plunged into war to save the last survival of the dark ages.—The Wall Street Journal.

At least one thing may be said in favor of our good Governor, "Jeems" B. He is a doggone graceful loser. And the old gentleman is not used to defeat either.—Carlisle Mercury.

GEORGE SAID LET THEM FIGHT IT OUT.

"Europe has a set of primary interests which to us have none or a very remote relation. Hence she must be engaged in frequent controversies, the causes of which are essentially foreign to our concerns."—George Washington.

The surprising news from Washington that Mrs. Woodrow Wilson is dying in the White House comes like a shadow of darkness over this now peaceful land. The cares of State are enough to alone worry President Wilson, and in these days and nights of his domestic sorrow every one grieves with him and hopes that God will give him strength.

In the management and control of his own financial affairs Mr. Bryan is thrifty, even stingy, but when it comes to giving away $25,000,000 of Uncle Sam's money he is the personification of generosity.—Commercial Tribune.

The remaking of the map of the old world is now in progress, and just to imagine the blood that will flow, and the suffering that will ensue. Verily the new European map will be painted with an ocean of human blood.

"The divine right of kings" is now in the spotlight. In a few months, or even a few weeks, the world will know just "who is who."

The Confession of a Confessionist.

She didn't know she loved her Tom, Until the coop he flew it; And when she came to look for him She realized she knew it.

It was an unusually busy morning for Primer Life, the great "confession" writer.

Hardly had he risen to start work at his typewriter (he was always at work at 5 in the morning) when Glyndon Scutter, editor of Nobody's Magazine, called him on the long-distance telephone.

"Mr. Life," he said, "do you think you could write the confessions of a second mate and have them at the office by noon? Those confessions of a union cowboy that we ran last month called forth letters of congratulation from ranchmen all over the country."

Assuring the editor of Nobody's Magazine that he would do his best, although he had to write the confessions of a professional traveling lecturer for his Half-past Three Magazine that same morning, Primer Life hung up with a sigh.

At 9 o'clock the editor of The Lookout telephoned to order the confessions of a mountain climber by 3 the next afternoon.

At noon Sigbee, editor of the Spigot called up and wanted to know how soon he could have the confessions of a smuggler.

At 12:30 his face lighted up, for it was lunch time, the one hour of the day when he was not tied to his desk.

"Some time I'll have to go on a vacation," he sighed as he reached for his hat. "Here I am forty-seven years old, and I've been so busy writing confessions covering every part of the world that I've never been out of this little town of Spoofsbury in my life!"—Louisville Times.

DEADLY CASHES

Made On Body of John Neal By Sam Moore—Cowardly Affray On the River.

(Vanceburg Sun.) Sam Moore cut John Neal almost to ribbons on the river shore at Fairview late Sunday afternoon, and Neal is in a dangerous condition on his houseboat on the Ohio side directly across from the scene of the cutting. After the cutting Moore took to the hills but was arrested Monday afternoon by Constable Sam Bigelow, Jailor Henry Sullivan and Henry Moore and is now in jail awaiting the outcome of Neal's injuries.

Neal was immediately brought to Vanceburg in a motor boat and his wounds were dressed by Dr. Fritz. He was cut eleven times and it took a spool of silk thread to sew up the wounds. The worst cut was one on the lower part of his breast which went to the hollow and exposed the lungs.

Neal was rowing up the Kentucky shore in a johnboat and was accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. Alice Tolle, and Miss Ola Johnson, when Moore and his stepson, Edward Thatcher, according to the Johnson girl's story, began to abuse Neal and threaten him. Neal landed the boat to let his aunt and Moore waded out into the river to his waist to meet them and commenced cutting Neal before he got out of the boat. Neal struck him with an oar and was getting the best of it when Moore's stepson hit Neal with a rock. Ola Johnson then jumped out of the boat in water up to her neck and waded ashore and beat Moore off of Neal with an oar and gave Neal a chance to get in the boat. She then shoved the boat in the river so far Moore could not get to him, and Neal's two brothers, who had seen the fight from the Ohio side came after him in a motor boat and took him to the doctor after chasing Moore away.

A PRINTER'S MISTAKE.

In handling the slugs which make up the lines in a newspaper, and in separating the various items, the make-up man sometimes gets the lines mixed up and they naturally read rather queer. As an illustration of what can happen we cite the mixup of the Bangor (Pa.) News a few days ago when the printer got a wedding and an auction sale mixed up with the following results:

"William Smith, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Smith, and Miss Lucy Anderson were disposed of at public auction at my farm one mile east, in the presence of 70 guests, including two mules and 12 head of cattle.

"Rev. Jackson tied the nuptial knot for the parties, average 1,250 pounds on the hoof. The beautiful home of the bride was decorated with one silky rake, one feed grinder and two sets of work harness nearly new, and just before the ceremony was pronounced the Mendel and Sons wedding march was rendered by one milk cow, five years old, one Jersey cow and one sheep, who carrying a bunch of bride's roses in her hand was very beautiful. She wore one light spring wagon, two crates of apples, three racks of hay, one gristmill of mousseline de soie and trappings with about one hundred bushels of spuds. The bridal couple left yesterday on an extended trip. Terms, spot cash."

NATIONAL GROWTH.

Speaking of the growth of Great Britain, H. G. Wells says:

"It has been made in spite of authority and disbelief, as no other empire was ever made. The nominal rulers of Britain never planned it; it happened almost in spite of them. Their chief contribution to its history has been the loss of the United States."

That is to say a nation is a natural product. It is the result of law and not of arbitrary planning. Men are often in the way. Much of the misfortune that comes to society, and the nation is of man's planning. Poor fellow, he thinks he is doing something for mankind, but he is only interfering. God's laws alone are sufficient for all needs. If, for instance, the world was run on the ten commandments and they were faithfully obeyed, we wouldn't need another statute. Certainly Great Britain suffered for man's interference, according to Mr. Wells, it was that which caused the mother country to lose her colonies.—Ashland Independent.

He left his pipe. —Lake.

TIRED OF REFERENDUM

Voters Have Become Weary of Ceaseless Trips To the Polls.

Citizens of Western cities are getting terribly tired of perpetual voting under the referendum plan. Seattle has just voted on the charter. One tenth of the voters who were registered voted for it, one sixth voted against it and three fourths of those registered did not vote at all.

The experience of Seattle is like that of most of the other cities and towns of the States. The leading newspapers in Oregon and Washington, for instance, complain of the tremendous flood of legislation submitted to the people at every election. It rises to 60 and 70 proposed laws, 30 or 40 amendments to the constitution, with pamphlets running to scores of pages by nearly all of them.

The feeling of weariness over having perpetually to be dragged to the polls to vote on every scheme that the fanatic the zealot, the enthusiast and the patriotic can think of to get to the people is most conspicuous.

The newspapers declare that the small and unusual body of thinkers seem to sit up nights devising things that shall keep citizens spending half their lives going to primaries and getting out the vote on referendum. But the experience of these states is precisely that of the older ones and the older cities—Buffalo, New York.

PRIZE OFFER TO TEACHERS.

To the Kentucky teacher who writes the best article or story on "My Moonlight School," the Kentucky Society of Colonial Dames will give the sum of $15.00.

The conditions are as follows:

The story must be absolutely true in every detail.

It must be written by the teacher who taught such school.

It must give date of opening, length of term, enrollment, age of youngest and oldest pupil and results.

It must be sent to the Kentucky Library Commission, Frankfort, on or before November 1st, 1914.

The judges will be Dr. J. O. Cribble, president; H. H. Cherry, Hon. Harkdale Bennett, superintendent; Bill Lewis, Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart.

RABBITS AND SQUIRRELS ARE PLENTIFUL.

Hunters say that the outlook for rabbits this year was never so encouraging. Squirrels also have been found to be plentiful in the woods. Last year was a great squirrel year, and the sudden appearance of so many of these little animals last year was a surprise to the hunters, as for several years squirrels like other game in Kentucky, have been diminishing. One year's class season on squirrels and every woodland in the State would be full of them. Doves shooting will be about as usual, with the outlook for better sport this year than usual. Doves should be protected for at least two years.

MAY CHANGE RURAL ROUTES

Postmaster General Burleson announced that he will probably have introduced in Congress a bill providing for a reorganization in the rural route service. His idea is to have fewer carriers and have their routes 10 to 20 miles long, to have the carriers use automobiles and to increase their salaries from $1,200 to $1,800 per year.

LOS ANGELES KEEPS CHECK ON TOILERS' PAY.

Los Angeles.—Saloonkeepers have been forbidden to cash any pay-roll check or order representing wages, by the Police Commission, in an effort to protect the families of workmen against the dissipation of their incomes.

Gen. Francisco Villa has proclaimed his independence of the Carranza movement, according to reports brought to El Paso, Texas, by arrivals from all parts of Northern Mexico.

The Adamson General Dam Bill to authorize Federal permits for dams on navigable streams for power purposes, passed by terms of fifty years, was passed by the House.

A town man wishes it were evening so that he might get out and enjoy himself. A farmer wishes it were morning so that he might get up and go to work.

Imports into the United States during the fiscal year ended in June which included nine months' operation of the new tariff law, increased more than $80,000,000.

The nominations of Paul M. Warburg and Frederick A. Delano for members of the Federal Reserve Board confirmed by the Senate.

Those who go into the "chicken" business should also remember that the feathered variety is the most profitable breed.

Suspicion against those who are successful is nearly always directed by those who have failed.

BOTTLE BABIES.

An enterprising Cynthia woman put a setting of eggs under a hot water bottle and the bottle soon became a mother. —Cynthia Democrat.

BABY, THREE YEARS OLD, WEIGHS MORE THAN ITS MOTHER.

Springfield, Mo., August 1.—Mr. and Mrs. Jess Fox are the parents of the largest children for their age in Missouri, if not in the United States. Ralph, three years and six months old, weighs 104 pounds. Una, the infant daughter, is eighteen months old, weighs 56 pounds. The mother weighs 102 pounds, or two pounds less than her "little" son. When born, Ralph weighed but three and one-half pounds. The attending physician expressed doubt that the child would live. Una weighed five pounds at birth.

NEGRO'S BODY EATEN BY HOGS

On Saturday afternoon, a portion of the body of an unknown negro man was found on the farm of W. E. Turner, 3 miles North of Paris, on the L. & N. It is supposed that the negro stopped at the spring where he was found for a drink of water, and died from heat or heart disease.

Hogs had eaten the arms and legs, and all that was left was the trunk of the man.

Capt. Speed B. Hilber, of Maysville, has been appointed by County Judge McMillan, of Bourbon, as administrator of the estate of his mother, Mrs. Theresa Hilber, deceased, and qualified with Mr. H. O. Jones as surety in the sum of $500.

When a newspaper does not desire to influence public sentiment in a given case and has no particular financial interest in the matter it prints the truth as accurately as its reporters can get it.

A lot of people who secretly endorse his motto lack "Muskogee Red's" frankness. "Muskogee's" motto is, when you meet a guy who has money stay with him till he spends it.

Your attention, doubtless, has again been called to the fact that they paid $22,500 for Marty O'Toole. And it is worth noting in the connection that some of it was in money.
